MEMORANDUM FOR: DEPUTY DIRECTOR (PLANS)

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

25X1A

1. In a memorandum for the Inspector General, CIA, dated 10 December 1952, [REDACTED] complains that in the transition from an overt to a covert status, "A series of adverse interpretations of the Agency fiscal regulations . . . have systematically stripped (him) . . . of all the aforementioned family assets except the term life insurance policy." He lists these assets as:

25X1A

a. A $10,000 commercial life insurance policy, containing special provisions.

b. A $10,000 term policy with NSLI.

c. Nearly $1,200 invested in a growing fund for his infant son's later education.

d. About $900 in cash savings.

2. [REDACTED] continues, "Agency officials concerned with processing my case have unanimously agreed that decisions rendered against me are inconsistent and patently inequitable when viewed collectively. However, these same officials are adamant in taking each regulation out of context and applying such manufactured criteria as are necessary to arrive at unfavorable interpretations . . . The fact that interpretations in my case have already been discussed on up through the office of the CIA General Counsel and Finance is of no concern to me if their interpretations are wrong."
